North Scott Food Pantry Needs

Many thanks to all who contributed gifts for the angel tree or who helped with the assembling and distribution of the Christmas baskets. This year the Pantry distributed about 150 baskets. January 2011 needs are soups and crackers and canned meals. Please remember that the Pantry does not open if school has been closed due to weather. Also, a message on the Pantry's phone 285-8110 will verify the Pantry's closing.

Thank You

A big thank you to all who braved the weather on Tuesday, January 10 to help take down the Christmas decorations. It was very much appreciated.

Knights of Columbus Breakfast

The St. Ann's Knights of Columbus will be sponsoring a breakfast on Sunday, January 30 in the Great Hall from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. More details to follow in upcoming bulletins.

St. Ann's Choir

St. Ann's Choir will rehearse at 9:00 a.m. each Sunday and sing for the 10:30 Mass. Past & present choir members and cantors are encouraged to attend. Interested parishioners (high school and adults) are welcome to attend and learn more about the music ministry

Do you have or know of a need for prayer?

If so, call one of our Prayer Support Line representatives: Vicki Gall at 285-4142 or Mary Lou Byrd at 285-6811

The Catholic Messenger

While the Catholic Messenger reflects the life of the Church in our diocese and throughout the world, it also provides a source of evangelization, spiritual formation and enrichment of our Catholic life and faith. It provides a forum for readers to express their thoughts about faith-related issues. The cost of $27 (not $25) for a year's subscription is a real value for what The Messenger brings to you.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

Looking for the perfect Valentine's gift for your husband or wife? Why not a romantic weekend away from home falling more in love? A Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend is exactly that kind of getaway. The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend is in Cedar Falls on February 11 to 13. To register or for more information contact Roger and/or Marsha Luensmann at 563-927-4352 or visit the website at <http://wwme.org>.

Birthright

Birthright is an emergency pregnancy service and has served our community for 40 years. Birthright volunteers offer love, encouragement, friendship and hope to a woman with an unplanned pregnancy. The loving alternative to abortion is offered, as well as practical support. All services are free and confidential, available to anyone seeking our assistance. How can you help? Give a financial donation. Become a volunteer. Pray for volunteers, mother and their unborn babies. Pray for fathers. Pray for those who perform abortions. Donate new or gently used baby clothes (newborn to 6 months sizes) and maternity clothes. A second collection for Birthright will take place next weekend (January 22 & 23) at all the Masses.

Automatic Deposits Available

You can make weekly, building fund, ADA contributions with automatic deposits. Contact the office if interested.

The Adult Corner

Question of the Week

For the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (January 16, 2011)

"Now I have seen and I have testified." How do you help someone who wants to believe but can't seem to see God's presence in the world? Where have you seen "The Word Made Flesh"? How can you give hope to someone who feels that God is not real and is not present in this world?

Revised Edition Of New American Bible Approved For Publication

The New American Bible, revised edition (NABRE), the first major update to the New American Bible (NAB) translation in 20 years, has been approved for publication. Cardinal Francis George of Chicago, then president of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), signed the canonical rescript approving publication on September 30, 2010. The NABRE will be available in a variety of print, audio and electronic formats on March 9, Ash Wednesday.

The new translation takes into account advances in linguistics of the biblical languages, as well as changes in vocabulary and the cultural background of English, in order to ensure a more accurate translation. This issue is addressed in the apostolic exhortation of Pope Benedict XVI, Verbum Domini, in which the pope says, "The inculturation of God's word is an integral part of the Church's mission in the world, and a decisive moment in this process is the diffusion of the Bible through the precious work of translation into different languages."

The new translation also takes into account the discovery of new and better ancient manuscripts so that the best possible textual tradition is followed.

The NABRE includes the first revised translation of the Old Testament since 1970 and a complete revision of the Psalter. It retains the 1986 edition of the New Testament. Work on most books of the Old Testament began in 1994 and was completed in 2001. The 1991 revision of the Psalter was further revised between 2009 and 2010.

The revision aimed at making use of the best manuscript traditions available, translating as accurately as possible, and rendering the result in good contemporary English. In many ways it is a more literal translation than the original New American Bible and has attempted to be more consistent in rendering Hebrew (or Greek) words and idioms, especially in technical contexts, such as regulations for sacrifices. In translating the Psalter special effort was made to provide a smooth, rhythmic translation for easy singing or recitation and to retain the concrete imagery of the Hebrew.
