Café John Lewis Update

Rick & Norma Schmidt are two St. Ann parishioners who answered the call to spend some time helping to re-open what was the John Lewis Café. The café is under new management consisting of several non-profit and largely Catholic organizations. Srs. Bea Snyder and Marilyn Schierbrock are the points of contact for the effort to re-open and operate the café.

There continues to be an immediate need for help in painting and cleaning in order to re-open, hopefully on All Saint's Day, November 1. Following the re-opening there will be a continuing need for volunteers to serve meals, do kitchen and clean-up chores. Contact the Congregation of Humility of Mary Center, 563-323-9466, and indicate you want to volunteer at the café. Sr. Schierbrock also needs folks to help her clean the neighborhood garden and do similar outdoor chores in time to take advantage of the no-fee yard waste pick ups now through November 1 in Davenport.

The Dignity of the Human Person

Promote Human Dignity

Here are some ways of promoting human dignity. Discuss how your family can carry out each suggestion.

1. Look for the presence of Jesus in everyone.
2. Be honest with others.
3. Avoid stereotyping and prejudice.
4. Stand up for the rights of others.
5. Avoid messages that insult human dignity.

Catholics Believe
Working for justice means respecting the dignity of persons and peoples.
Justice is giving what is due to God and others. Where justice is absent, peace is not possible.
