PHASE 1 DIOCESAN-WIDE PARISH
PLANNING PROCESS BEGINS
SEPTEMBER 2010

Last week’s bulletin insert included thoughts on change. This week’s question is about opportunities for growth.

Where is the good news in the planning process?

A: There is plenty of good news! Even though there may be fewer priests in the immediate future, the Holy Spirit continues to call all parishioners to become more actively involved in their parish. It is a time for believers to better appreciate and share their giftedness with others. It is a time for parishes to reach out to each other and the wider community. Some excellent examples of such collaborative ministry have been part of recent articles in The Catholic Messenger. The planning process is an opportunity for all parishioners to rediscover their call to continue the mission of Jesus in their own unique ways. It is also through such interaction that vocations to priesthood and church ministry are fostered. The more that young people are actively involved in meaningful ways in their parish, the more opportunities they have to discover if God is calling to a vocation to ministry.

Next week’s question is:

What is the “grass-roots” approach all about?

How is prayer part of the planning process?

All parish leaders are being asked to attend one of the following seven area meetings (about 2 hours long) which will be held throughout the diocese to present the planning process. Parish leadership includes pastors, parochial vicars, parish life administrators, parish lay trustees, all members of the parish pastoral council, all members of the parish finance council, staff (DRE, youth minister, secretary, bookkeeper, etc.) and commission chairpersons.

Sunday, Sept. 19 St. Mary, Solon – 4:30 pm

Sunday, Sept. 19 Holy Trinity, Richmond – 7:00 pm

Monday, Sept. 20 St. Mary, Albia – 7:00 pm

Tuesday, Sept. 21 St. Alphonsus, Mt. Pleasant – 7:00 pm

Sunday, Sept. 26 St. Mary, Pella – 5:00 pm

Sunday, Oct. 3 St. Paul the Apostle, Davenport – 3:00 pm

Sunday, Oct. 3 St. Joseph, DeWitt – 5:00 pm

Phase 2 will include grassroots meetings at the parish level for all parishioners.

The Adult Corner

Question of the Week

For the Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (August 29)

“When you hold a banquet, invite (those who have the) inability to pay you.” How many things do you do where you keep score? You don’t send a Christmas card because they didn’t send you one. No more birthday gifts because they didn’t acknowledge the last one. We’ve had them to dinner twice and they never invited us back, so drop them from the invitation list. What motivates you to give? How unselfish and humble are you in inviting “the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind” to God’s banquet of love?

20 Million Pakistani Flood Victims

An estimated 20 million Pakistanis have been affected by the worst flooding in that region in 80 years. Pakistan is appealing for aid from the international community. The death count is already at 2,000, and it is expected to rise after aid workers are able to access and assess the damage in remote villages of Pakistan's Khyber Pakhtunkhwa region.

Catholic Relief Services has been on the ground in Pakistan since 1954 and is now asking for all of us to give generously to help their staff with the urgent and massive relief effort. Please visit www.crs.org to read the stories and to donate. AND PLEASE spread the news that we all must, once again, exercise the mandate to be as charitable as possible to those in need.

Nothing Compares to Childlike Faith

With engaging rhymes and beautiful illustrations, This Little Prayer of Mine assures children that God is always near--watching, listening, caring, and eager to respond to their requests. They'll also learn that prayer isn't just about asking for things, but about sharing their feelings of sadness and uncertainty as well as of thanksgiving and joy. Most importantly, This Little Prayer of Mine reminds children—and those who love them—that they can trust God to tenderly care for them, no matter what the future holds (ISBN-13: 978-0307458049).
